

WPA 3 Minutes Presentation Competition

Submit your application by the extended deadline of 21 July 2024

The WPA 3 Minutes Presentations Competition is planned to be a live interactive session with a series of short presentations aiming to improve presentation skills of early career psychiatrists (ECP).

The format of the competition aims to encourage early career psychiatrists to effectively explain their topic in 3 minutes in a clear and succinct way, improving their vocal pitch accuracy and trying to capture the audience's attention.

2 Sessions:

-15 November, 13:30-14:30

-16 November, 13:30-14:30

Preparation

Each presentation should only have 1 slide and last 3 minutes. The presentation will be followed by up to 2 minutes of Q&A from the audience.

Prizes

The winner from the session will each receive waived registration to the WCP 2025 Congress.

Opportunity to write an article for BJPsych Advances

The World Psychiatric Association (WPA) and BJPsych Advances, The Royal College of Psychiatrists' CPD journal for consultant psychiatrists, are delighted to continue their collaboration aiming to assist psychiatric trainees and early career psychiatrists to develop their writing skills.

First Prize Winners of the WPA 3 Minutes Presentations Competition to be held during the 24rd WPA World Congress of Psychiatry in Mexico City (14-17 November 2024) will be offered the opportunity to write an article for BJPsych Advances about a topic they presented during their session. The WPA will identify mentors to work with the winners to ensure that submissions reach the high quality required by the journal and they will be peer reviewed in the usual way.

This follows the publication of the BJPsych Advances/WPA Stress and Resilience special issue in 2021 and we look forward to further strengthening the collaboration between the BJPsych portfolio and WPA.

Presenters should be registered to the WPA Congress to take part.
